Please answer these questions on a separate sheet of paper. Remember there are no right or wrong answers; just be honest in your responses.

Please answer the following questions concisely.

- 1. You are part of a team that is doing an evangelistic outreach, and you are scheduled to preach this evening. The rest of your team has left to travel around to different orphanages for the day and you have stayed behind to prepare for your message. During lunch, a missionary comes in and asks if you will help him pick up garbage around the church for the rest of the afternoon. It possibly could take up your time all the way to the evening service. What do you tell him?
- 2. Your team has been prepared to do work with school children in local villages, but when you arrive, the schedule is different than expected. The students take an unexpected break from school and your team spends each day prayer walking, spending time in the ministry house with the missionaries, and sorting paperwork in the ministry house office. How do you respond?
- 3. Your host missionaries decide to take your team out to coffee for a break from the work. You would rather be painting the new school building. Why would it be beneficial for you to enjoy the time off with the missionaries?
- 4. While serving with your team, you visit a church which is “Charismatic.” During the service a message in tongues is given and then interpreted. A local asks you about what is going on and wants to know what you think about it. What do you say?
- 5. Your team is sitting down to an authentic meal prepared by your hosts. The hosts are so excited for you to eat with them, but the meal looks and tastes horrible. What do you do?
- 6. While serving in a village and having an enjoyable dinner with your host family. You are suddenly offered a glass of wine. You have strong convictions against wine, but you know that your host would be greatly offended if you decline. What do you do?
- 7. Please write out exactly how you would share your testimony on the mission field to a crowd of believers and non-believers. (Enough to share for 3 to 5 minutes)
